SHOW IMAGING ACQUIRES PRO SYSTEMS AV

Standalone Division expands Show Imaging's offerings in Pro Audio, Concert Production and Touring

Vista, CA -- Show Imaging, Inc. announced today that it has acquired Pro Systems AV, a respected San Diego based company with an established specialty in concerts and festivals. Pro Systems merges with Show Imaging and will operate as a self-contained division that retains the existing name.

Pro Systems is excited by the prospect of joining the Show Imaging family. Brad Donaldson, President of Pro Systems explains "By joining forces with Show Imaging we expand the services we can provide our clients. In addition, we help bolster their offerings in the concert and festival space. Together we are poised to grow and continue to provide remarkable service for our clients." Pro Systems will continue to be a standalone entity, concentrating on their core mission of providing world class service in the live audio, concert and touring space. Brad will continue as President of Pro Systems and assumes the role of Vice-President, Concerts and Touring, and becomes an equity partner in Show Imaging.

Steven Q. Evans, Founder and CEO of Show Imaging commented "Brad has built a phenomenal brand and has an exceptional team, we feel honored to be able to work together to build on the amazing foundation that exists." As a part of the acquisition, Show Imaging has agreed to make a substantial investment in capital expenditures for Pro Systems. Brad Donaldson shared that "Our clients and team will benefit from the infusion of new capital and the expansion of our carefully curated inventory of world class equipment."

Show Imaging Inc. creates unique live experiences through hands-on project management, creative design and cutting edge technology. For more than ten years, Show Imaging has brought to life nationally acclaimed events such as San Diego Comic Con, the MLB All Star Game and numerous concerts, meetings, activations and festivals around the country. Show Imaging was founded in 2009 and has quickly grown to become one of the top-rated nationally recognized production and creative companies in the industry.
